

FIFTY MINERS ARE KILLED IN AN EXPLOSION

MYSTERY SURROUNDS AFFAIR

Non-Union Men Are Blown Up While at Work.

CARBONDALE, Ill., April 3.—A report from Zeigler, Ill., sixteen miles from here, says there has been a fearful gas explosion in the Joseph Leiter coal mine. Twenty miners were killed and eighteen wounded.

According to reports received here, the entire opening of the mine at the surface is wrecked. Although the explosion is attributed to gas, suspicion exists that there may have been another cause.

Only non-union men are employed in the mine since the strike for increased wages some months ago, resulting in riots and in the presence of militia and armed guards.

The last of the troops were recently withdrawn, although reports were current that there had been attempts to bribe officials to permit outsiders to gain entrance to the mine, the object being to make the mine unworkable.

State Mine Inspector Atkinson reported at his last examination of the shaft that 150 men were employed in two shifts.

The explosion is reported to have occurred as the two shifts were changing today.

MANY KILLED.

ST. LOUIS, April 3.—A message received here from the Zeigler Coal Company at Zeigler, Ill., confirming the report of a disastrous mine explosion there, says:

"Cannot tell definitely yet as to number of men killed, probably thirty. Two have been rescued alive thus far."

FEW DETAILS.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 3.—A report reached the adjutant-general's office during the morning that fifty men had been killed in the explosion at Zeigler and Sheriff Stein of Franklin county was at once wired for particulars. Up to late this afternoon no details had been received. It was stated at the adjutant-general's office that the sending of troops to Zeigler was not likely unless it was found that the explosion was the result of a plot.

MOSCOW, April 3.—Interior Minister Boulgan has overruled the decision of the Assistant Minister of the Interior prohibiting the holding of the cholera congress, whose program can now be carried out.

GIRL IS PLACED IN JAIL
TO CURB ROMANTIC SPIRIT

Leontine Gere, a school girl, fourteen years of age, who figured first in an elopement with Joseph Bailey, a married man, and, secondly, in an affair of the heart with Leon Cunier, a man many years her senior, has been placed under arrest at the instance of her father, B. Gere, to curb her romantic spirit.

According to her father, in every man the little girl sees the possibility of a real romance, and is exceedingly indiscreet in making her choice of men. The child will in all probability be placed under the charge of the probation officer.

She was formerly educated in a convent in San Francisco, but has been attending school in this city for the last two years.

Her life has been as full of love escapades as a professional adventurer, and her father has been driven almost to distraction in an effort to control her.

MYRTLE IS TRUE TO HER RUNAWAY LOVER.

MISS MYRTLE LANGFORD.

He Failed to Turn Up at Wedding But She Will Marry Him If She Gets a Chance.

At the very last minute, when Miss Myrtle Langford, a prepossessing young woman of Fruitvale, was to have become the bride of Moses Hamburger, a young business man of San Francisco, a hitch occurred in the nuptials in the way of strenuous objection on the part of the groom's parents, causing an indefinite postponement of the wedding. But the disappointed pair are still determined to wed, and declare that the ban placed on them by the parents of the young man can only be temporary, and that love will find a way in the end.

SET DATE FOR WEDDING.
Miss Langford, who is a blonde of striking beauty, was to have become Mrs. Hamburger a few days ago. At the request of her lover she had devoted all her time, since last December, to the preparation of her trousseau, and eagerly awaited the solemnization of the ceremony.

But it was not until the guests arrived at the residence of Rabbi M. S. Levy in San Francisco that the groom sent word that he could not become a benedict on that day. His brief note outlined the objection of his parents, and declared that the ceremony would have to be postponed for the present.

BRIDE FAINTS.
It has been whispered among the friends of the bride that she fainted when she received the distressing news. But there was nothing to be done but to accept the inevitable.

The young woman had waited many weary minutes for the carriage that was to convey her swain. She was a charming bride. Her gown was splendid. Then came the crushing note, and according to report the young woman whose heart strings had been tugged at until she could stand the strain no longer, fell in a dead faint in her bridal robes.

BRIDE'S MOTHER SPEAKS.
Mrs. J. T. McGee, mother of the disappointed bride, resides at the corner of Forest and Capp streets in Fruitvale. She told the story of the postponed wedding to a TRIBUNE reporter today.

"It is true that my daughter was to have married," said Mrs. McGee, "but the postponement was caused through the objection of the young man's parents to the match. The objection was based solely on the fact that the young people have not the same religion."

HEARS FROM GROOM.
"The story that has been circulated that my daughter was deserted at the last moment is untrue," continued the mother of the girl. "While it is a fact that he did not appear at the wedding that was to have taken place, Mr. Hamburger did not run away as has been intimated. Why only last Thursday I received a letter from him dated Los Angeles. He is a traveling man and at that time expected to go to Salt Lake City and now I am expecting to hear from him there."

OFFERED NO MONEY.
According to report the note that was sent by Hamburger to his fiancée was heartlessly brief, and that she did not subsequently hear from him, merely learning that he had gone East.

It has also been stated that a Mr. Ludwig, a brother-in-law of Hamburger, had called on Miss Langford and declared that the parents of the groom-elect would not countenance the match. It is also reported that offers of coin were made to the young woman if she would give up her lover, but that the offers were spurned.

WILL PERFORM CEREMONY.
Rabbi Levy, who was to have married the pair, says that he understood the ceremony was postponed because the groom had to go East on business. He said he was given to understand

FITZGERALD HAS SIX VOTES

He Will Be Elected
President of the Council Tonight.

The City Council and the Board of Education will meet this evening to organize by electing presidents and appointing committees.

From all indications George Fitzgerald, caucus nominee, will be elected to the presidency of the Council. He will receive six votes out of the eleven. Councilman Meese, who was Fitzgerald's opponent, will probably permit his name to be placed before the Council, as he announces he is of the same opinion now that he was on the night of the caucus.

SCHOOL BOARD.

In the organization of the Board of Education three names, Clift, Rogers and Redington, have been mentioned. It is probable that Clift will have a majority of the educators with him. Rogers, however, has developed a great deal of strength and may yet be able to land the presidency. If there is any split the members of the board may compromise on Redington.

SUPERINTENDENT.

City Superintendent of Schools McClymonds will be re-elected without opposition. Assistant School Superintendent York will also be re-elected to the position that he now holds. Miss Yorker, stenographer, is slated to be re-appointed also.

HANMORE OUT.

Stenographer E. Hammore, who has for several years been connected with the board of works, has handed his resignation to Mayor Mott to take effect immediately.

Another position which there is much eagerness to secure is the one made vacant in the Superintendent of Streets office by the resignation of Richard B. Ayer to go into the Treasurer's office. E. S. Finch, E. B. Meek, and a score of others are after the plum, but the members of the Board of Works with whom the appointment lies, have not considered as yet who shall be selected for the position.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Among the other changes that are occupying the thoughts of the new administration is the Board of Health. It is accepted by politicians generally that Health Officer von Adelung will lose his official position. It is thought that the majority of the other appointees will remain in office.

There will probably be no change in the position held by Deputy License Inspector Franka.

BANDIT WITHOUT ATTORNEY

Must Put Up a Fee Before Counsel Will Take Case.

MARTINEZ, April 3.—Highwayman Zimmerman, who languishes in the County Jail here, charged with stealing $10,000 from the Central Bank messengers, is not to have an attorney in the person of P. F. Benson of San Francisco unless he furnishes a fat fee in advance. Zimmerman has received a letter to this effect from the man whom he wanted as his counsel.

The jailors of the accused man believed that they at last had a chance to secure a sample of Zimmerman's writing, and supposed he would undertake to send a reply to Benson. But the robber nonchalantly remarked that he did not care who his attorney was, and let the matter go at that. When asked if he did not care to write a reply he declared that he did not.

Unless Zimmerman sends for another attorney, it is probable that his counsel will be appointed by Judge Carpenter of Martinez, who demands that the date for the preliminary examination must be set this week.

Sheriff Veale is still in Martinez directing the sending out of circulars descriptive of Tom Collins, who is believed to have been Zimmerman's accomplice in the Stege hold-up.

Now and then clues are sent to Sheriff Veale from various parts of California but none have been received as yet that are believed to be strong enough to warrant Sheriff Veale's departure. He is ready to leave at any moment that word is given.

Zimmerman still presents a stolid indifference to his surrounding and does not drop the slightest word that might lead to his conviction of the charge that has been placed against him. He converses with his fellow prisoners but all their efforts to learn something of the hold-up from him have proven unavailing.

COMPROMISE IS REJECTED

BUDA PEST, April 3.—The executive committee of the opposition parties today at a meeting rejected the proposed compromise between the crown and the combined opposition by which it would be possible to effect the formation of a cabinet.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 3.—The Tennessee Derby will be run over a muddy track this afternoon. It is probable that only three horses will compete for the stake, valued at nearly $10,000. Aggie, owned by Captain Samuel S. Brown of Pittsburg, is an odds-on favorite.

FRUIT CROP IS NOT DAMAGED

NEWCASTLE, April 3.—No frost damage has occurred to the Newcastle orchards and no injury except upon the low-lying lands is noticeable, and, even tomato plants and grape vines have so far been uninjured.

During the coming season, however, there will be a shortage of at least 25 per cent from earlier estimates, caused by the recent long-continued rains destroying the pollen and blighting the blossoms. The loss will extend to early and midsummer peaches and to cherries, plums and prunes. Certain kinds of pears, grapes, oranges and olives seem to be all right.

BOODLERS' WRIT IS DENIED

Senate Did Not Exceed Duties in Expelling
Them.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The State Supreme Court today denied an application for a writ of mandamus to compel the restoration to office of State Senators Bunkers, French, Wright and Emmons, who were recently expelled from the State Senate for accepting bribes to influence their votes in regard to the legislation affecting building and loan associations.

Attorney G. D. Collins appeared before the court, sitting in banc in behalf of the accused Senators, and made an elaborate argument in their behalf. He contended that they had been found guilty without trial, and that the Senate had no power to expel them on an ex parte hearing. The power of the court, therefore, was invoked to restore them to their former positions.

Chief Justice Beatty asked if there were any precedents for the desired action.

Attorney Collins replied in the negative. He was then asked by the Chief Justice whether or not legislative bodies had exclusive power over their own members.

The attorney held that the Senate had not arbitrary power, and that the question was one of the court to decide.

Attorney-General Webb, in behalf of the State, opposed the contentions of Attorney Collins and maintained that the Senate had not exceeded its power in expelling the Senators.

In his closing argument Collins insisted that the accused should have been given a hearing before final action was taken.

Chief Justice Beatty, after a few minutes consultation with his associates, denied the writ of mandamus.

JAPANESE PREPARING TO STRIKE

Heavy Movement is in Progress on Russian Flanks.

GUNSHU PASS, April 3.—A renewal of fighting is expected shortly. The concentration of the Russian army is complete with its advance lines south of the station of Sipinghai, seventy-four miles north of Tie Pass.

The Japanese are screening their movements well by means of cavalry, and it is difficult to locate the bulk of their army.

A heavy movement seems to be in process on the Russian flanks.

The railroad station at Changtufu, forty to fifty miles above Tie Pass, is occupied by Japanese artillery, but so far as ascertainable it does not cover a large body of troops.

ACCIDENT OR CASE OF SUICIDE

Wealthy Berkeley Widow
Found Dead With Gas Turned on.

BERKELEY, April 3.—Mrs. Nettie Batterman, the wealthy widow of the late T. S. Batterman, a well known mining man, was found dead in the bedroom of her home, 2314 Channing way, this morning. Death resulted from asphyxiation. The gas cock was turned full on and the door of the room was locked from the inside. Whether death was the result of suicide or accident is not known.

Two years ago Mrs. Batterman went suddenly blind and has been totally blind since that time. She has also been an invalid for some years. She suffered from a nervous palsy that rendered her almost helpless. It is thought that her misfortunes may have made her despondent and have caused her to take her own life. It is equally possible, however, that she accidentally left the gas jet open in turning out the flame with her nervous hand on retiring last night.

Mrs. Batterman was aged forty-five years and was the mother of two children, aged eight and ten years respectively. With the assistance of her housekeeper, Mrs. Lindsay, the mother put her little ones to bed as usual last night, and then went to her own room to retire. To all appearances she was in her usual spirits and there was no hint of the tragedy to come. This morning Mrs. Lindsay noticed a strong odor of gas coming from her mistress' room. She tried the door and found it locked. Unable to force an entrance alone, she summoned Mrs. M. E. Sell, mother of Mrs. Batterman, who resided a few doors away. Mother and housekeeper then burst open the door and were horrified to find the dead body of Mrs. Batterman in the bed. There was no note or sign to hint of suicide. Only the open gas jet and the deadly odors of the gas told the manner in which the grim reaper had arrived.

Drs. Reinhardt and Hadden were summoned, but when they arrived life was extinct and the Coroner was notified of the death. An inquest will be held to determine, if possible, whether the demise of the unfortunate woman was due to deliberate purpose or accident.

Besides her parents and her two children, Mrs. Batterman leaves surviving a brother, Walter Sell, who resides in Seattle. On the death of her husband four years ago, deceased was left possessed of considerable property. She was a graduate of the University of California, as was her husband. Both were widely acquainted in Berkeley.

"Mrs. Batterman always bore her afflictions with fortitude," said Mrs. Lindsay this morning, "and I am certain that death must have been due to an accident. Some time ago she lost all sense of smell, and had she left the gas turned on accidentally she would have been unaware of the fact even though awake. She gave absolutely no hint of intending to end her life."

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

Issue in Political Campaign For Mayor of Chicago.

One Party For Purchase; Other for Vote of People.

CHICAGO April 3.—One of the most spirited political contests of recent years was wound up in Chicago today. Municipal ownership of street railways has been the issue. John M. Harlan, son of Justice Harlan of the United States Supreme Court, is the Republican candidate for Mayor and Judge Edward J. Dunne of the Circuit Court here is the Democratic nominee. Both candidates stand pledged for municipal ownership but by different methods. The Democratic party stands for the immediate purchase or condemnation of the tangible property or unexpired franchises of the railway company. The Republicans advocate the referendum of the question to the people by a referendum vote.

"SENATAH" HAMDEN SEEKS R-R-REVENGE! His Wife and Her Male Friend Cause of Colored Man's Trouble.

J. A. Hamden better known in colored political circles as "Senatah" owing to the active part he believes he took in the election of Governor Pardee was in the Police Court this morning looking for revenge against William Perrin whom he had arrested on a charge of battery. The Senator's suit for revenge was prompted by the fact that Perrin stole his wife's affection and then whipped the wretched husband in the bargain. The Senator has been recently doing politics in San Francisco and when his wife came to this city his suspicious were aroused. Finally some one who did not wish to see the politician remain in ignorance of his wife's feelings told him of the deception that was being practiced. The Senator, clothed in all the dignity of his title, called on Perrin and after a short pause attempted to thrash him. The result was unexpected. Perrin was the victor and Hamden had to seek bail for his wounded feelings by process of law.

PRESIDENT GETS GAY ON HIS PLEASURE TRIP.

He Has Left Taft in the Saddle at Washington. He Will Not Even Think of a Fourth Class Postmaster.

HARRISBURG Pa. April 3.—I don't expect that I need a rest but I am going to take one in the open under God's blue heaven said President Roosevelt today standing on the platform by his special train in the Pennsylvania station and conversing with Congressman Olmstead and United States Attorney McCullough and United States Marshal Leonard in the presence of a great crowd that gathered in the station to meet him. It was suggested to the President that things would go along in a smooth manner even if he were absent. Oh things will be all right he said. I have left it all sitting on the lid kept in, down the San Domingo matter. Later he said San Domingo matter. I am going to have an outing. I am going to get into where I want even think of a fourth class postmaster. When the train came in the crowd was in the station balcony and the President cheer as the train stopped. He stood on the rear platform waving his hand to the crowd and fairly beaming with good nature. When the train stopped the President stepped from the platform with the remark: I secret service officer. Pass right along now and if this crowd is not too big I'll shake hands with all of you. At this there was a rush to shake hands with him. To one old soldier with a button in his coat the President said How are you comrade? How was I? as the train moved off. One man proposed three cheers for Feldy which were given with a will and the President laughed heartily at the family. The last remark as the train got up and was a hearty So long boys goodbye.

RAILWAY MOTOR CAR

Experts Believe That Problem Has Been Solved.

OMAHA April 3.—The dawning of a new era in the history of local passenger traffic was marked yesterday. When the Union Pacific new gasoline motor car beat the schedule time of train No. 5 from Valley to Omaha a distance of forty miles Superintendent of Motive Power McKen's plan of starting at high gear has worked out successfully and it is the opinion of railroad men who took the trip to day that the problem of railway motor cars has been solved. McKen was at the throttle on yesterday's run and about a score of railroad business and newspaper men accompanied him. The outward trip to Valley was made at low gear at a speed of twenty miles an hour at high gear the return trip was made at the rate of thirty miles an hour although the car is capable of a very much greater speed. My dream has come true said McKen. Here is a car weighing twenty tons with a 100 horsepower engine which starts at high gear and stops without a jar and runs at high speed with very little vibration. I am immensely pleased with it. The car will be subject to some minor improvements and will eventually be sent to Portland.

ISTHMIAN CANAL COMMISSION IS APPOINTED.

Secretary Taft Tells of Members Will Receive Large Salaries For Their Work For U. S. Suggestions Made in Order to Have Harmony.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The personnel of the new Isthmian Canal Commission is as follows:

Theodore P. Shonts, chairman, Charles E. Magoon, governor of canal zone; John F. Wallace, chief engineer, Rear-Admiral M. T. Endicott, U. S. N., Brigadier-General Peter C. Hains, U. S. A. (retired); Colonel Oswald M. Ernest, corps engineer, U. S. A.; Benjamin M. Harrod.

These names were announced at the War Department today and in connection with the announcement Secretary Taft gave out for publication a statement showing the allotments of salaries to the new commissioners and his own letter to the President, and one from the latter explaining the plan of reorganization of the commission, the reasons therefor and the particular duties to be assigned to each commissioner. The first reads as follows:

THE SALARY.

"The President has made an order allowing a salary of $7,500, with traveling expenses, to each member of the commission and to the chairman of the commission the additional compensation of $22,500; to the chief engineer the additional compensation of $17,500, and to the Governor of the zone the additional compensation of $10,000. The head of each department is allowed the use of a furnished house on the Isthmus and his traveling expenses when traveling on the business of the commission.

"The total is $102,500. The salaries and allowances under the former commission amounted to $120,000. The total compensation of the Governor of the zone and chief engineer are each unchanged.

"Professor William H. Burr and Mr. William B. Parsons, civil engineers, will be appointed as members of the consulting board of engineers."

TAFT'S LETTER.

Secretary Taft's letter to the President is as follows:

"War Department, Washington, March 30, 1905.

"Mr. President: In the matter of the reorganization of the machine by which the Panama Canal is to be built, I beg first to call your attention to the extreme importance of fixing a definite plan with respect to which you may feel reasonably certain, first that it can be practically executed and will result in a navigable canal, and second, that the navigable canal will be the one best adapted to the demands which may be made on it by the commerce of the world.

"The act of Congress evidently contemplates a canal with locks, the cost of which shall be in the neighborhood of $200,000,000, including the money already expended. It is quite within the bounds of possibility that the best form of canal will be a sea level canal with a tidal lock only at one end of it, and that the cost of it may exceed the $200,000,000 in the mind of Congress by at least $100,000,000 more.

THE WORK.

"The work of the engineering department of the present commission has been largely devoted to obtaining the data upon which the plan of the canal must be determined. These data include topographical measurements, borings, the character of the soil, the flow of water in the rivers—all stated with sufficient exactness to secure the closest calculations by experienced engineers, though not on the ground. It is probable that within the next few months these data will have been so fully ascertained by the chief engineer, Mr. Wallace, and his assistants, that they may be submitted to a board of engineers of the highest standing for recommendations as to the best plan upon which to proceed with the work.

"It also has been made apparent, by the reports of Mr. Wallace and by the commission, that whatever plan is likely to be adopted, work of excavation and construction which would have to be done under any plan, may proceed without waste of energy for a period quite long enough to enable you to decide which is the best plan.

FIRST WORK.

"I suggest, therefore, that the first work to be done is the appointment of an advisory board of engineers, say, seven or nine in number, to be selected from the engineers having special knowledge of hydraulic engineering and canal construction, to whom shall be submitted all possible information with respect to the projected Panama canal, both that obtained by the French engineers before our purchase of the plant and the data obtained by the chief engineer of the present Canal Commission, together with all projects suggested for the solution of the problem which the Canal Commissioners deem reasonably possible or practicable; that the advisory board be invited to Washington for the purpose of agreeing on its recommendations on the premises and that if possible such recommendations be made before the regular meeting of Congress in December; that the recommendations be submitted to the Canal Commission as they constituted for its approval or modification, and that the recommendations of the Canal Commission be submitted to the President for his action and transmittal to Congress. As already suggested, this work of securing the best plan and its approval by Congress need not delay in any way the preliminary work adapted to any possible plan, or the highly critical work of sanitation, the extreme importance of which has already been emphasized in your previous instructions to the Canal Commission.

IMMENSE BURDEN.

"It is expected, even by its own members, that the greater commission has not so developed itself into an executive body, as to give hope that it may be used successfully as an instrumentality for carrying on the immense executive burden involved in the construction of the canal, and it remains for the President, in the future of Congress to act, to recognize the commission both by change in personnel and by certain instructions as to its internal procedure and distribution of powers and authority to secure greater rapidity in the doing of the work.

"It is not to be supposed that Congress intended that the commission was personally to do with work, or come nearer to the direct agencies in doing the work than the directory of the general plan of work, and the doing of railroad work and the doing of work in detail, the result to be reported subsequently, of course, to the commission. The commission should, in the person of its chairman, appoint an executive committee, to be constituted and empowered as hereafter stated.

"The Secretary then states in detail his plan for the division of the work into departments and seasons thereof, all of which details are accepted and set forth in the President's order. The letter concludes as follows:

"The change of headquarters and power from Washington to the Isthmus will doubtless require a radical change in the office of the commission in Washington. I am quite sure that greater economy and more satisfactory methods of accounting can be secured than now exist. Machinery for purchase of supplies and for accounting must necessarily be maintained in Washington, but little else is needed. But these changes may safely be left to the commission and executive committee, as nearly constituted.

RESIGNATIONS.

"I beg to submit herewith the resignations of all the present canal commission, to take effect at your pleasure.

I respectfully recommend the appointment of a new commission and a designation of the chairman of the commission, the Governor of the zone and the chief engineer and the issuing of an executive order embodying the recommendations herein. Respectfully yours,

"WILLIAM H. TAFT,

"Secretary of War.

"The President's action is indicated in the following reply:

"The White House, Washington, D. C., April 1, 1905. The President's order of the operations of the Isthmian Canal Commission appointed, acting under previous executive orders, has been changed in the person of the commission and instructions for its guidance.

"The commission will hold quarterly sessions, the first of January, April, July and October, and the work of the commission, the Governor of the zone and the chief engineer and the issuing of an executive order embodying the recommendations herein. Respectfully yours,

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

"The head of the second department shall be the Governor of the zone, with the duties and powers indicated in the executive order of May 9, 1904, which includes in general:

1.—The administration and enforcement of law in the zone.

2.—All matters relating to the canal zone and also in the cities of Panama and Colon and the harbors, etc., so far as authorized by the treaty, the executive orders and decrees of December 3, 1904 between the United States and the Republic of Panama relating thereto.

THE REPORT.

The Secretary of War will make to the President a report at least annually and as often as he may deem advisable or the President may require that all executive orders relating to the subject of the Panama canal, except so far as they may be inconsistent with the present order, remain in force.

The order closes with the announcement of the appointment of the commission. The appointment of Judge Magoon as Governor of the canal zone shall take effect on the date of his arrival on the Isthmus and the resignation of the present incumbent of said office shall thereupon take effect.

The commissions of Messrs. Shonts, Magoon, Endicott, Hains and Harrod were delivered to them today and they took the oath of office as Isthmian Canal Commissioners. They immediately called upon Secretary of War Taft, and it is expected they will enter upon their duties at once.

Chairman Shonts will go to New York tonight.

NEW STORE IS A SUCCESS

CAMPBELL COMPANY'S OPENING ATTRACTS A LARGE CROWD.

A distinct business and social success was the opening of the new store of the W. H. Campbell Company at Twelfth and Harrison streets last Saturday night. Throughout the evening the handsome new grocery mart was thronged with prospective customers of the firm and the 1,200 people in attendance were highly entertained with the lavish display of goods.

The new store has been tastefully decorated for the occasion and as a special attraction demonstrators were on hand from stockholders to explain the splendid stock pleasure was also added to the occasion through the rendition of several numbers by the 22nd Band.

The perfect arrangement of the store was apparent even when the crowd of visitors to the store was at its height. All newest goods in the display and preservation of goods are attained. Everything to be carried by the firm is strictly fresh and of the best quality.

While quality will be the watchword of the firm the prices will be as low as a reasonable profit will permit. The service will always be kept in mind by the managers of the store.

The new firm is guaranteed by the fact that every member of the firm is a resident of Oakland. The new firm is guaranteed by the fact that every member of the firm is a resident of Oakland. The new firm is guaranteed by the fact that every member of the firm is a resident of Oakland.

BOYS RETREAT HAS AN OUTING

The fourth anniversary of the Boys' Retreat was celebrated Saturday, April 1. A gaily decorated wagon, in which was seated the Boys' Retreat Drum Corps, composed of eleven boys under 14, was driven through the principal streets in the afternoon and evening.

The uniformed drummers certainly attracted the attention of young and old, they were so enthusiastic. For amateurs they did exceedingly well. In the evening, Rev. J. N. Halliday of the First M. E. Church gave the boys a very interesting talk.

Miss Vineyard and Miss Miller helped entertain the boys with music and singing. The boys were served with ice cream and cake.

A visit to this institution during the opening hours arouses the interest of all thinking persons who approve of the practical manner in which the boy is occupied with games, reading and athletics.

The board of directors of this institution is composed of well-known business men. The president of the board of directors is Frank E. Mott, Mayor of Oakland. During the past four years this work has made wonderful progress. The present superintendent has had charge of the Boys' Retreat since its inception.

The following firms contributed to the anniversary celebration: H. C. Capwell Co., Taft & Penney, Oakland Cream Depot, Central Creamery, California Creamery, California Ice Co., Imperial Bakery, Cape Ann Bakery, Merrick's Bakery, George D. Hallahan, A. Schuler & Co., Salinger's, C. W. Childs, president of People's Express Co., E. C. Thurston & Co., Al Wood & Bro. and F. H. Dorcas.

For Over Fifty Years Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, cures the gum, relieves all pain, cures whooping cough and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25 cents.

MASONS TO ERECT NEW BUILDING

At the meeting of the Scottish Rite Masons last week it was decided that the order would spend $100,000 in the erection of a new stone temple upon their property at the corner of Fourteenth and Harrison streets.

A fine stone building will be erected on the lot, which is 100 by 100 feet in size. Part of the property is now occupied by the order and the balance let to tenants. The buildings thereon are all of frame and the new temple will be a vast improvement over the antiquated structure.

Although the Scottish Rite Lodge has only $25,000 in the treasury the necessary funds for completing the stone edifice will be supplied by loyal members if necessary. The plans for the temple are in the hands of J. B. Merritt, a member of the lodge.

WHERE IS HIS HOME?

Man's Wife Having Hard Time to Get a Divorce.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Mrs. Edith G. Childs first tried to get a divorce in Shasta county from her wealthy husband, Jerome S. Childs, and he claimed that San Francisco was his legal residence. So she brought an action in this county and now Childs has shifted to the other foot and claims that his residence is in Shasta county.

In this dilemma Mrs. Childs has appealed to the Superior Court for guidance and aid. An affidavit in which she details how Childs has been leading her a merry chase was filed today. She also described how he has made life wretched for her. Even as late as December 17, 1904, he struck her in the mouth and, holding a revolver in a menacing attitude, threatened to kill her.

Childs' actions in changing his residence is for the purpose of annoying and harassing her, Mrs. Childs says, and to put her to great expense. She was married to Childs on February 8, at Redding. In April, 1902, they moved to the Palace Hotel, soon returned to Redding, and then again took up their abode at the Palace. On June 6, 1902, they took up their residence at 30 Pierce street, on December 6 following moved to 213 Haight street, and in June 1903, stored their furniture. At that time Childs was the owner of the Tower House, located nineteen miles from Redding.

On July 23, 1903, Mrs. Childs brought her first action for divorce in Shasta county. When the case came up he produced the affidavits of W. B. Tillotson and Charles L. Reynolds to prove that San Francisco was his place of residence. The papers in the case were transferred here. Subsequently a new suit was instituted in San Francisco, and Childs is adopting his old tactics to fight it.

Childs is a mining expert, formerly employed by J. B. Haggin, the well-known New York horseman. Haggin spent millions. On the strength of Childs' advice, the divorce suit is not the only action Childs is dodging according to Mrs. Childs' attorney. Mrs. Childs' advice. The divorce suit is not

AFTER THE S. F. THEATERS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The Grand Jury is prosecuting its inquiry into the flagrant violations of the theater ordinances of this city and will make a strenuous effort to close the places of amusement that are veritable death-traps.

In all the twenty-four theaters and amusement halls inspected by Architect Newton J. Sharp only one theater, the Majestic, has complied with the terms of the ordinance adopted after the holocaust at the Iroquois Theater at Chicago in which so many women and children lost their lives.

It is claimed the Tivoli is a dangerous place.

MAN OF WEALTH BUNCOED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—J. Hunter, a man of wealth and traveling for pleasure, journeyed all the way from New Zealand to give his money to an American bunco man. Last night he told Captain of Detectives Burnett just how it happened, and today detectives are searching for a soft-spoken stranger who holds $50 in cash and $10,000 worth of certificates of exchange belonging to the tourist.

Hunter has been stopping at the California Hotel since his arrival in the city, and yesterday started out alone for a tour of the town. He met a smooth-spoken stranger, who addressed him by name and spoke familiarly of affairs and folk in New Zealand. Then came the American game of poker, of which Mr. Hunter confessed a knowledge to his new-found friend. A third party was picked up and the unsuspecting New Zealander was properly plucked.

Banks have been advised not to cash the securities that fell into the hands of the bunco men, and police are searching for crooks and con.

THIEVES STEAL FORTY HARES

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Some unattractive thief is believed to contemplate a hare and rabbit market, having begun his operations last night in the premises at 1254 Valencia street belonging to George W. Dobbs, who had a flourishing collection of the animals named until the thief cut it last night. Dobbs reported to the police this morning that some time during his absence his rabbits were looted, the robbers getting away with forty English hares and ten rabbits, the lot valued at $25.

PRISONERS SUICIDE

Japanese Do Not Like Confinement in Russian Forts.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 3.—At the bureau established to look after the Japanese prisoners, the story of the suicide of a number of Japanese imprisoned at Medvid is officially declared to be misrepresented.

The information received at the bureau is to the effect that one of a batch of 125 new arrivals who was invalided, became very homesick and took his life.

No complaints of ill treatment have been received.

Two Japanese surgeons who were confined at Medvid were released and today were escorted to the frontier by American Vice-Consul Smith.

DINAN NOT YET CHIEF

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Alexander O'Grady, the newly appointed Police Commissioner, attended last night's meeting of the commission, but took no part in the proceedings, his bond not yet having been approved.

Whether this fact had anything to do with the failure of the commission to appoint a new Chief of Police last night is a source of some speculation. At any rate, considerable surprise was expressed that the appointment was not made.

Apparently not the least surprised was Detective Jerry Dinan, who during the past few days has been looked upon as the most likely aspirant for the position. Dinan was in attendance at the meeting in a spick and span new black suit, as though he was ready to accept the honor thrust upon him, but nothing happened.

SAILED FOR THE ARCTIC

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—The last of the whaling fleet, the gasoline schooner Monterey, sailed this morning for Arctic seas.

The Monterey was flying an American flag as big as her mainsail.

DISABLED STEAMER HAS ARRIVED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The steamer Phoenix, which was recently disabled at Abion, Ore., by getting a line entangled in her propeller, arrived here this morning.

She was towed down the coast by the steamer South Coast and anchored off the Heads, as the South Coast was bound for San Diego. The tug Seal went outside and towed her in.

The unfortunate man's skin was literally cooked by the hot preparation and he was rushed by his fellow employees to a physician for treatment.

After the tar had cooled portions of the outside on Long's hands and arms gave way during the cleansing of the wounds.

SON RETURNS AND IS PROMISED WORK BY FATHER WHO DID NOT RECOGNIZE HIM.

BERKELEY, April 1.—After an absence of nine years Robert Steadman J. today called on his father, Robert Steadman, a contractor of 2217 Parker street, and observing that his parent did not recognize him applied for work. "I do not need a carpenter at present," said the elder Steadman, "but if you will leave your card I will let you know when I do."

When the piece of pasteboard was tendered the contractor could scarcely believe his eyes. A cordial greeting was tendered the young man, who explained that he had been traveling through Mexico and that he had decided to pay a short visit to his old home.

One is in the Hospital and Other is in Prison.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Another cutting affair between Japanese took place early this morning in St. Mary's place, and one victim is now in the hospital and his assailant is in jail.

About 2:30 a. m. a row broke out in 18 St. Mary's place, where several Japanese were having supper. Coming to blows, one of the fighters, Kiyazaburo Nakamori, drew a knife and then plied up a cleaver and attacked M. Givus, a laborer, with both weapons. DISASTROUS FIRE OCCURS

ALVARADO CITIZENS SUSTAIN HEAVY LOSS THROUGH LACK OF WATER.

ALVARADO, April 3.—A conflagration which destroyed five buildings valued at about $15,000 broke out here Saturday evening, and owing to a lack of water it had full sway until a building was torn down and the spread of the flames stayed. The fire started in an upper room of the D'Avilla building, which was occupied by two Portuguese, who were using a gasoline stove in cooking their supper. An explosion of the gasoline spread the burning fluid over the room and its contents and severely injured both the occupants before they could escape. The citizens of the town turned out to fight the flames, but they were unable to accomplish anything in the way of extinguishing the fire for want of water. The fire rapidly consumed the D'Avilla building, in which was besides the saloon, a barber shop, and then attacked and consumed in rapid succession the barber shop of Frank Dabrovitch, the residence of Harmon, an old church building which has been used for some time as a public hall, and the drug store of Charles Wenka. These buildings were completely gutted by the flames and buildings and contents destroyed. The further progress of the flames was stopped by tearing down a building next to the Lees residence, and the burned area was bounded on the other side of the D'Avilla saloon by a vacant lot.

T. B. COGHILL IS AFTER RECEIVER

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Apprehension has been made by T. B. Coghill, the senior member of the firm of Coghill & Kohn, wholesale grocers at 300 Front street, for a receiver. He alleges that the firm has been considerable mismanaged in the business of the firm during the recent months, and that this is due to the neglect of his partner. Mr. Coghill was seen at his home in Oakland last night and declared that he would carry his case forward in the courts, and that he had ample evidence on which to secure the appointment of a receiver. Mr. Kohn, who lives on this side of the bay, is at present out of the city.

SENATOR MORGAN SERIOUSLY ILL

NEW YORK, April 3.—Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama, who has been confined to his bed in Washington for several days with a severe cold is not in a serious condition, according to Dr. John W. H. Smith, who was called to the capital for consultation. In his opinion, the attack was brought on by Senator Morgan's labors at the recent session of Congress.

SKIN DISEASES SPEAK FOR THE BLOOD

Skin Diseases speak for the blood and tell of the acid-laden, poisonous condition of that vital fluid, and of its effort to throw off and rid the system of the poisons and waste matters that have accumulated in it. Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Boils and diseases of this type are all caused by a weakened and polluted blood circulation, and though they may have lain dormant in the system during the cold weather, at the coming of Spring and Summer, when the blood is reacting and making extra efforts to expel all morbid and poisonous matter, they make their appearance. External remedies cannot cure; they soothe and give temporary relief, but often clog the pores and glands, and the poison causing the trouble is thus shut up in the system to break out afresh later on. S. S. S., a purely vegetable blood remedy, cures all skin diseases by going down into the circulation, driving out all poisons and waste matters, strengthening the blood, leaving the skin soft and smooth, and building up the entire system by its tonic effect. S. S. S. cures Nettle Rash, Poison Oak and all skin diseases that enter the system through the pores and glands, as well as those that have their origin in the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any advice wished, without charge.

Joshes For Captain Nance.

BERKELEY, April 3.—Quite a furry was caused on the University campus today when the Pelican, the student magazine of satire and wit, made its appearance. The jests are unusually satirical. Captain Nance, the commandant of the military cadet corps, is made the butt of the following sonnet:

Rememberest thou the day when Nancy first,
Seeking for starchy, soldierly perfection,
Ordered naught-five to come to school
by sections?
Long, loud and deeply was the Cap'n cursed,
Until seething, pent-up rough house burst
Forth into riots, mobs and insurrections.
Scattering plugs and gore in all directions,
But lot one day that order was reversed.
Both sides have now agreed that war is hell;
Sweet peace roosts on North Hall, and
The tranquil Cap attends a freshe dance,
And all goes merry as a dinner bell.
The only yellow streak on Captain Nance
Is sewed upon his military pants.
The current Pelican is called an "April Fool's number." Its cartoons are daring, as usual, in many instances, and its jokes occasionally risqué. The contribution of one outsider, dealing with Ben Grey and his frequent appearances at college, was printed, reading thus:

We've been greeted by Ben
Till Ben Grey we're sore,
Thank God we'll be greeted
By Ben Grey no more.
The college "water wagon," labeled
"Anheuser," bearing a load of roystering students wearing the University "C," has a full-page cartoon. A play upon the Saturday Evening Post is made in a cartoon depicting a collegian with a battered face affectionately embracing, in his maudlin enthusiasm, an unresponsive lamp post, all supposedly occurring on a Saturday night.

Recorder James Sutton, in knickerbockers, hidden behind a fence, has the role of a small boy trying to fool the oncoming pedestrian with a package labeled "diploma," to which a string is attached. Gibbs are cast at the earnest and rising young journalists who toll for the daily Californian without money and without price, the gibes taking this form: How does the freshman busily improve each shining hour? He hitches after them for The Daily Californian.

He hustles till it makes him thin.
He weareth out his shoes;
And in the end he bringeth in
A bunch of last week's news.
Augustus C. Keane acknowledges responsibility for this edition of the Pelican. The cartoonists include Harry Rogers, Carl Hoffman, Emil Kruschke and J. Klein.

IN 1896 I experienced at times patches on the inside of my hands that itched and burned, causing much discomfort. I was convinced I was afflicted with a type of Eczema. I consulted several physicians, and used several external applications, receiving but slight temporary relief. I decided to try S. S. S., and soon I found myself entirely cured. FRESNO LOSES TO HEESEMANS

The Heeseemans, Oakland's representatives to the State Baseball League, opened the season yesterday by hooking up with Fresno's team in the Raisin City. Oakland won out with a score of 3 to 2.

The local team made eleven base hits, nine being chalked up for Fresno. Pierce, Oakland's crack twirler, was in excellent form yesterday, and, with his almost perfect support, won the game for his team.

Next Sunday, the Oakland aggregation will journey to Stockton and there meet the Slough City team.

The uniforms for the Oakland team have been furnished by Charles Heeseeman. In color they are a bluish gray with scarlet trimmings. The caps are of Chicago style and the stockings are the scarlet, striped with gray and the coats are of scarlet, making a very neat uniform altogether.

The Oakland bunch went into the game with this line up: Pierce, pitcher; Boettlinger, catcher; Constantine, first base; Quigley, second base; Lutgen, captain, third base; F. Kennedy, short stop; Fey, right field; Walthers, left field; Bliss, center field; Seers also played in the middle guard. For Oakland the longest hit of the day was made by Boettlinger, who sent the leather out for a three bagger.

Oakland has a strong aggregation, and present dope ought to figure up well in the State League pennant race.

DISASTROUS FIRE OCCURS

ALVARADO CITIZENS SUSTAIN HEAVY LOSS THROUGH LACK OF WATER.

ALVARADO April 3.—A conflagration which destroyed five buildings valued at about $15,000 broke out here Saturday evening and owing to a lack of water it had full sway until a building was torn down and the spread of the flames stayed. The loss is partly covered by insurance. The fire started in an upper room of the D'Avilla building which was occupied by two Portuguese who were using a gasoline stove in cooking their supper. An explosion of the gasoline spread the burning fluid over the room and its contents and severely injured both the occupants before they could escape. The citizens of the town turned out to fight the flames but they were unable to accomplish anything in the way of extinguishing the fire for want of water. The fire rapidly consumed the D'Avilla building in which was besides the saloon a barber shop and then attacked and consumed in rapid succession the barber shop of Frank Danovich, the residence of Harry Lee, an old church building which was used for some time as a public hall and the drug store of Charles Winkle. These buildings were completely gutted by the flames and buildings and contents destroyed. The further progress of the fire was stopped by tearing down a building next to the Lee residence and the burned area was bounded on the other side of the D'Avilla saloon by a vacant lot.

T. B. COGHILL IS AFTER RECEIVER

SAN FRANCISCO April 3.—Application has been made by T. B. Coghill, senior member of the firm of Coghill & Kohn, whole sal grocers at 300 Front street for a receiver. He alleges that there has been considerable mismanagement in the business of the firm during the recent months and that this is due to the neglect of his partner. Mr. Coghill was seen at his home in Oakland last night and declared that he would carry his case forward in the courts and that he had ample evidence on which to secure the appointment of a receiver. Mr. Kohn who lives on the side of the Bay is at present out of the city.

SENATOR MORGAN SERIOUSLY ILL

NEW YORK April 3.—Senator John T. Morgan of Alabama who has been confined to his bed in Washington several days with a severe cold is not in a serious condition according to Dr. John W. Allen, who is attending to him. He is expected to be discharged from the hospital in a few days.

SKIN DISEASES SPEAK FOR THE BLOOD

Skin Diseases speak for the blood and tell of the acid-laden, poisonous condition of that vital fluid, and of its effort to throw off and rid the system of the poisons and waste matters that have accumulated in it. Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Boils and diseases of this type are all caused by a weakened and polluted blood circulation, and though they may have lain dormant in the system during the cold weather, at the coming of Spring and Summer, when the blood is reacting and making extra efforts to expel all morbid and poisonous matter, they make their appearance. External remedies cannot cure; they soothe and give temporary relief, but often clog the pores and glands, and the poison causing the trouble is thus shut up in the system to break out afresh later on. S. S. S., a purely vegetable blood remedy, cures all skin diseases by going down into the circulation, driving out all poisons and waste matters, strengthening the blood, leaving the skin soft and smooth, and building up the entire system by its tonic effect. S. S. S. cures Eczema, Psoriasis, Boils and all skin diseases that enter the system through the pores and glands, as well as those that have their origin in the blood. Book on Skin Diseases and any advice wished, without charge.

FRESNO LOSES TO HEESEMANS

The Heeseemans, Oakland's representatives to the State Baseball League opened the season yesterday by knocking up with Fresno's team in the Raisin City. Oakland won out with a score of 3 to 2.

The local team made eleven base hits, nine being chalked up for Fresno. Pierce, Oakland's crack twirler, was in excellent form yesterday, and with his almost perfect support, won the game for his team.

Next Sunday, the Oakland aggregation will journey to Stockton and there meet the Slough City team. The uniforms for the Oakland team have been furnished by Charles Heeseeman. In color they are a bluish gray with scarlet trimmings. The caps are of Chicago style and the stockings are scarlet, striped with gray and the coats are of scarlet, making a very neat uniform altogether.

The Oakland bunch went into the game with this line up: Pitcher, Boettlinger, catcher, Constantine, first base, Quigley, second base, Lutz, center field, Bliss, center field, Seers also played in the middle guard.

For Oakland the longest hit of the day was made by Boettlinger, who sent the leather out for a three bagger.

Oakland has a strong aggregation, and present dope ought to figure up well in the State League pennant race.

STOCKTON, April 3.—The State League baseball season opened here yesterday in a game between Stockton and Lodi. Stockton won from the first inning Lodi being outclassed both in fielding and hitting. Score:

Stockton 7 2
Lodi 3 6 4
Batteries—O'Brien and Andrews, Houser and Palm.

SAN JOSE, April 3.—By the score of 4 to 1 the San Francisco State League team won the opening ball game from San Jose. The visitors played errorless ball and scored their runs on hits, while the locals pitched honors were evenly divided between Flynn and Emerson.

Joshes For Captain Nance.

BERKELEY April 3.—Quite a furry was caused on the University campus today when the Pelican student magazine of satire and wit made its appearance. The jests are unusually satirical.

Remembered that the day when Nancy first Seeking for starved soldierly perfection. Ordered naught-five to come to school by sections.

Long loud and deeply was the Cap'n cursed. Until seething pent-up rough house burst.

Fort into riots, mobs and insurrections. Scattering plugs and gore in all directions.

But let's one day that order was reversed. Both sides have now agreed that war is hell.

Sweet peace reigns on North Hall, and all is well. The tranquil Cap attends a freshe dance, And all goes merrily as a dinner bell.

The only yellow streak on Captain Nance is served upon his military pants. The cartoonist is called an "April Fool's number." Its cartoons are daring as usual in many instances and its jokes occasionally risqué.

The contribution of one outsider dealing with Ben Grant and his frequent appearances at college was printed, reading thus:

We've been greeted by Ben Till of Ben Grant were sore, Thank God we'll be greeted by Ben Grant no more.

The college "water wagon" labeled "Anheuser bearing a load of roasting 'tudents wearing the University C" has a full-page cartoon. A play upon "the Saturday Evening Post" is made in a cartoon depicting a collegian with outstretched arms affectionately embracing in his mauldlin enthusiasm an unrepentant hump post, all supposedly occurring on a Saturday night.

Recorder James Sutton in kulek-bockers hidden behind a fence has the role of a small boy living to fool the oncoming pedestrian with a package labeled "diploma" to which a string is attached.

Gives are cast at the earnest and rising voice of journalists who toll for the District of Columbia without money and without power the globe along this form: How doth the freshman bus? Improve each shining hour? He hitherto after stems for The Daily Californian.

He hustles till it makes him thin He weathers out his shoes And in the end he brings in A bunch of last week's news.

Amoratus C. Keane acknowledges responsibility for this edition of the Pelican. The cartoonists include Harry Rogers, Carl Hoffman, Emil Kruschke and J. Klein.

"MODERN PAINTERS" SUBJECT OF LECTURE

ELECTRIC LINE NEARLY DONE

EXPECTED BY MAY FIRST RICHMOND AND OAKLAND WILL BE CONNECTED.

POINT RICHMOND April 3.—The trolley line to Oakland will be opened possibly on the first day of May. The wiring is now completed and the ballasting of the track is progressing. It is the desire of the East Shore & Suburban Company to have everything in good shape before the road is opened for traffic. There are always a lot of odds and ends to finish up at the last. Superintendent Rheem and this morning they brought the first day of May would see the opening.

The new sub station at the Southern Pacific station in San Francisco. The building is ready for them and next week they will be brought over and installed.

The cars for the new line will be shipped from St. Louis today. There are four of them and they are of the same pattern as the big Ellis street cars on the Park and Beach line in this city. They are equipped with powerful motors and air brakes capable of making a speed of forty miles an hour. They are enclosed entirely with cross seats designed for night travel.

Superintendent Rheem estimates that running time from the Southern Pacific depot in Richmond to the Key Route station will be about twenty-five minutes.

CATCH MAN EATER
Yesterday a couple of young men who live in the old boat just this side of the Arctic works caught a man-eating shark and kept it until it was nearly dead. The capture was made off Point Richmond and the monster made a terrible fight before he was finally conquered and hauled into the boat.

BRIEFLETS
Two ships are still out at San Pablo point unloading. One another wind-sung is expected with a cargo of wheat for the Standard Oil Company. The tires for locomotives are turned over to the Empire Iron Works at San Pablo and were discharged. The evidence was too indefinite.

Richmond School has increased from 219 to 260 pupils since the opening of school after the holidays. The Ladies Aid Society will give an old fashioned supper next Thursday evening at the Methodist Church. Supper 25 cents from 7:15 to nine o'clock. Every body cordially invited.

Wilson Stannett and Miss Esther Elton both of this city were married in San Francisco Thursday. They were both quite well known here but none of their friends were present. The couple left last night for Pennsylvania where they will reside in the future.

PERSONAL MENTION
Miss Dottie Landsey was taken suddenly ill while in San Francisco Thursday, and a severe case of diphtheria has resulted. The mother of Dr. Bedwell Mrs. D. C. Wright of Monterey arrived here last night and will spend several days visiting her son.

E. J. Clark, who worked for the Richmond Light and Power Company some months ago at the power house is here from Honolulu where he is now making his headquarters.

Captain Addison Goodrich was in town from his Berkeley home yesterday looking after his property interests in Richmond.

F. W. Montgomery and wife will depart for Kansas City this evening where they expect to reside.

A little son was born to the wife of Freeman H. A. Martin at the family apartments in the Waverley building on Nicholl avenue yesterday morning.

PRESIDENT STARTS ON A TOUR OF SOUTH.

He Will Attend the Re-union of the Rough Riders. Then He Will Hunt Wolves and Big Game in Mountains.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—With cheers and good wishes resounding at the Pennsylvania depot, the President at 9:05 a. m. today, on a special train, started a trip through the South.

Among those at the station were many friends of the President, including Postmaster-General Cortelyou and Secretary McCall of the Department of Labor and Commerce.

SPECIAL TRAIN.
The special train, which is one of the finest the Pennsylvania railroad has ever sent out of Washington, consists of three cars, the President's private car, the Pullman sleeper Forest and the combination baggage and buffet car, Viceroy.

Attached to the train, to be run as far as Baltimore as a buffer, was a day coach. The train is handsomely fitted and contains every known appliance to insure the comfort and safety of the passengers.

The train was scheduled to leave at 9 o'clock but it was a minute after that hour when the President arrived at the station. He had been delayed at the White House for a few minutes in signing some important papers. Even after he boarded his car, some papers were handed to him for his signature. It was just five minutes after the scheduled time of departure when the train drew out of the station.

IN THE PARTY.
In the party besides the President were Secretary Loeb, General S. B. M. Young, Dr. Alexander Lambert, Lieutenant G. R. Fortesque, one of the President's aides; M. C. Latta and J. L. McGrew, stenographers to the President; A. Strichmeyer, photographer, and representatives of the newspaper press associations.

The trip is being primarily made to enable the President to attend the reunion of his old regiment, the Rough Riders, which is to be held at San Antonio, Texas, next Friday, and to hunt big game in Oklahoma and Colorado. Incidentally the President will deliver

FIRE IN CHURCH OF ST. LEANDER

ALTAR LINENS AND RICHEST IRISH LACES DESTROYED—LOSS OVER $500.

SAN LEANDRO, April 3.—The fortunate but accidental discovery of a fire in the vestry of St. Leander's Catholic Church early last Saturday morning may be credited with the saving of that religious structure from destruction by the flames.

As it was, damage to the extent of nearly $500 resulted, only a part of which, however, was suffered by the church itself.

Quite a large section of the cabinet in the vestry in which the vestments, surplices and altar linen and laces of the church are kept was burned, the part destroyed being that specially devoted to the care of linens and laces. A smoldering flame had eaten away a large section of the repository and, in the loss was included some fine linens and laces, the gift to the church by Mrs. Ludovina Ivy, and some of the most delicate rich and beautiful Irish lace which, it is said was ever brought to this section of the country. This lace was purchased in Belfast by the donor, Mrs. D. Biorjarty.

The extent of the smoldering fire was made known to Rev. F. Sousa, curate of the church, by the small of burning wood and the subsequent discovery of smoke forcing its way through the window crevices of the vestry in the rear of the church.

The discovery was made shortly after midnight Saturday morning. Father Sousa aroused Father O'Mahoney, pastor of the church, and both clergymen rushed to the vestry, finding it full of almost suffocating smoke. Charles Rideout, a resident of this city, was passing the church at the time and joined the clergymen in the battle against the flames, because the draught, as soon as the vestry door was opened, fanned the embers into threatening sheets of flame.

A garden hose was brought into requisition and its stream was directed so well that the fire was extinguished without calling on the local fire department or even arousing the neighborhood.

ACCUSED BY MOTHER-IN-LAW
George O'Brien, accused by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ellen Furlong, of failure to provide for his minor children, had his case set this morning for trial on April 10 by Judge Smith. O'Brien, in the meantime, promised to provide the common necessities of life for his children.

GIVEN DIVORCE.
A final decree of divorce was granted Martha Hand this morning by Judge Smith from George Hand and she was awarded $25 a month alimony and the custody of their child Percy. The decree was granted on the ground of neglect.

We Will Buy

A 50c. Bottle of Liquezone and Give it to You to Try.

We want you to know about Liquezone, and the product itself can tell you more than we. So we ask you to let us buy you a bottle—a full-size bottle—to try. Let it prove that it does what medicine cannot do. See what a tonic it is. Learn that it does kill germs. Then you will use it always as we do, and as millions of others do.

This offer itself should convince you that Liquezone does as we claim. We would certainly not buy a bottle and give it to you if there was any doubt of results. You want those results; you want to be well and to keep well. And you can't do that—nobody can—without Liquezone.

We Paid $100,000

For the American rights to Liquezone. We did this after years of the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, after proving, in thousands of different cases, that Liquezone destroys the cause of any germ disease.

Liquezone has, for more than twenty years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research. It is not made by compounding drugs, nor with alcohol. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time. The result is a liquid that does what oxygen does. It is a nerve food and blood food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its effects are exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying. Yet it is a germicide so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $100,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. The reason is that germs are vegetables; and Liquezone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetable nature.

There lies the great value of Liquezone. It is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissue, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Every physician knows that medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquezone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, and forever. That is inevitable.

PRINCE UNDER THE KNIFE CANNOT BE SOLD

Physicians Say That His Highness is Not in Danger. Would-be-Assassin Dies From Wounds Inflicted by Police.

LONDON, April 3.—The Prince of Wales underwent an operation today at Marlborough House, the nature of which was not divulged in the official statement subsequently issued. The public was assured that nothing serious was the matter by Sir Francis H. Laking and Sir Frederick Treves, the court physicians, whose signatures are appended to the statement, as follows: "Owing to a slight operation this morning, the Prince will be confined to his room for a few days. As his condition gives rise to no uneasiness, no bulletins will be issued."

HAS BEEN TWICE IN THE ASYLUM

David Keating, the insane man who jumped off the ferry-boat Garden City Saturday afternoon, it has been discovered, has been twice at Agnew's Asylum. Under proper care and treatment he regains his mental balance, but when left to his own resources he in the world he seems unable to bear the responsibility and his mind weakens under the strain. He is to be examined before Judge McVern this afternoon and will probably be returned to Agnew's, as they understand his case. He has a sister, Mrs. Mary Fletcher, living at 1129 San Pablo avenue. Armed with a large telescope basket and a pair of glasses, Mrs. Margaret Robinson, who conducts a boarding house on Dana street in Berkeley, was arrested for stealing flowers yesterday morning by Deputy Constable Farrar and taken to the County Jail. After spending most of the day in jail she was liberated last evening on $20 bail. It is alleged that Mrs. Robinson has been in the habit of visiting her neighbors' gardens and helping herself to their choicest blossoms. Her basket and the few wilted blossoms are still held at the jail as mute evidence against her. The arrest was made at 7 o'clock in the morning. Farrar was on the watch for the woman and caught her in the act of robbing the garden.

REV. HOBART IN LOCAL PULPIT

Rev. C. H. Hobart, who has been unanimously called to the pastorate of Calvary Baptist Church, this city, but who has not yet decided whether he will accept the call, arrived here Saturday night and yesterday preached at both the morning and evening service. The edifice was crowded on each occasion, hundreds of friends of the former Oakland clergyman coming to hear and to greet him. Dr. Hobart is considering the call that has been extended to him very seriously, and it is hoped by the congregation that he will accept.

LITTLE CHILD LOSES HER FINGER

While playing with her father's bicycle Lena Swah, a little two-year-old girl living with her parents at 832 Castro street, caught her little finger between the sprocket and the chain and it was cut off. She had been turning the wheel around, which had gained considerable momentum, and her delicate little digit was taken off instantly. She was taken to the Receiving Hospital by her mother and the injury was cared for by Dr. A. S. Kelly.

GIVEN DIVORCE.
A final decree of divorce was granted Martha Hand this morning by Judge Smith from George Hand and she was awarded $25 a month alimony and the custody of their child Percy. The decree was granted on the ground of neglect.

PISTOLS CANNOT BE SOLD

Would-be-Assassin Dies From Wounds Inflicted by Police.

LODZ, April 3.—The would-be assassin of Police Commissioner Szablowicz, who was seriously injured Saturday afternoon by a bomb which was thrown at him in the street, is dead. He never regained consciousness after being cut down by the policeman who arrested him.

Considerable excitement was caused at midnight by two Cossacks who attacked four pedestrians, killing two and wounding the others. The Government has prohibited the sale of revolvers. The gun dealers have been ordered to close all revolvers in sealed cases and hand them over to the police.

CARRIAGE MEN OT A STRIKE

MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED PLANTS AFFECTED BY THE MOVE.

CHICAGO, April 3.—A general strike of carriage and wagon builders against members of the Carriage and Wagon Manufacturers' Association was begun here today. More than one hundred plants are affected. It was reported that the demands of the union—providing for a 10 per cent increase in wages and exclusive employment of union workmen—had been agreed to by eighty-nine firms, giving employment to 700 men. In the remaining factories, employing 1,100 men, the proprietors, who have been busy for the last two months filling their shops with non-union workers, refused to accept the closed shop rule. The union ordered its members not to report for work today at all such places.

DECIDES AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Justice Holmes of the Supreme Court of the United States today delivered the opinion of that court in the case of Henry W. Peabody & Company, and Warner Barnes & Company vs. the United States in opposition to the contentions of the Government. These suits were brought to recover duties from the firms on merchandise shipped by them from New York to Manila, between April 11, 1899, the date when the ratifications of the treaty with Spain were exchanged October 25, 1901. The decision followed the lines of the judgment of the court in the fourteen diamond rings case, in which it was held that after the titles passed to the United States, there was nothing in the Philippines insurrection sufficient to gravitate the islands to the character of foreign countries within the meaning of the tariff act.

LAST MONTH TO PAY TAXES

Taxes are slowly filtering into the office of Tax Collector James Barber, and not more than the ordinary amount of delinquencies, it is stated, will remain on the books at the close of the second installment, which will end the last Monday in this month. The year generally, Mr. Barber states, has been a prosperous one, and the effect of it is felt in the collection of tribute from the people.

IT'S NO JOKE FOR THESE MEN

Clark Mead of 218 Sixth street and Frank Mattos of Irvington, according to the stories they tell Chief of Police Hodgkins are the victims of April Fool jokes wherein all humor seems to be absent. Mead says his room was entered on All Fools Day and a bureau drawer rifled of $5 in cash. Mattos has a graver complaint. He states his pockets were picked on the same day at the Free Market and a gold watch valued at $40 taken. Both matters have been placed in the hands of the detectives for solution.

AGED MAN IS FOUND DEAD

SAN LEANDRO, April 3.—Joseph Larcomb, an aged man, was found dead in his lodgings on the Oakland Road on Saturday afternoon. The gruesome discovery was made by the milkman, who called at his home about four o'clock. Death was due to the bursting of an artery in the brain. An inquest will be held Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The deceased was seventy-eight years of age and a native of New York State. He was unmarried and leaves no near relatives. The Society of California Pioneers, of which he was a member, will take charge of the funeral, which will take place in San Leandro, where he has resided for the past fourteen years.

MEMBERS OF BAR ARGUES FOR A NON-SUIT

AT TABLE

ELECT OFFICERS AND THEN TALK UPON A VARIETY OF SUBJECTS.

The annual meeting of the Alameda County Bar Association was held last Saturday evening. Many matters of importance were taken up and disposed of and the officers of the association for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President—George W. Reed. Vice President—John Yule. Secretary and Treasurer—Geo. E. De Golia.

Executive Committee—M. C. Chapman, John R. Glascock, Fred L. Button.

After adjournment, the members attended the annual banquet at Bar-nums. The tables were tastefully decorated and an enjoyable time was experienced.

During the evening the following toasts were responded to, George W. Reed acting as toastmaster: "Commercialism of Law," A. A. Moore; "Early Days," John R. Glascock; "Old Times," M. C. Chapman; "Progress of Association," Geo. De Golia; "Law and Politics," J. J. Allen; "Lawmakers," W. B. Wagon; "Strategy in Law," T. W. Harris; "Past Lights," F. L. Button; "Profession of Law," W. S. Jones; "Young Lawyers," J. J. Burke; "The Ladies," Cary Howard.

The hours spent around the board were considered the most enjoyable ever experienced by members of the association, under the same auspices.

Everyone of the speeches was delivered in a manner which showed that the speaker was master of the subject, and was listened to with an interest which is not always vouchsafed orators on festive occasions.

ATTORNEY DE GOLIA ASKS THAT CASE AGAINST 'PHONE CO. BE DISMISSED.

In the trial of the suit of Mrs. Joanna Horton against the Sunset Telephone and Telegraph Company, Attorney George R. De Golia this morning began the argument on a motion for a non-suit on behalf of the telephone company. With the close of the case last Thursday, Attorney Stanley Moore announced to the court that he rested the case for Mrs. Horton, the evidence for his side of the case having all been presented.

At the opening of the court this morning Attorney De Golia announced to Judge Blisworth that he wished to make a motion for a non-suit upon the ground that the telephone company was not liable for the injury to Mrs. Horton, who was killed by taking hold of the telephone wires coming down the side of his house, had not shown the proper order in his case, it is expected that his argument will probably consume most of the day.

While it is claimed by Attorneys Moore and Langan & Langan, for Mrs. Horton, that the telephone company was criminally careless in strung its wires in such close proximity to heavily charged electric light wires that it could become charged and carry current of sufficient voltage to kill a man, De Golia is now arguing to the court that this is not the point at issue, but that Horton, in taking hold of the wires, brought death upon himself and that there is no recourse.

It was shown by the testimony of the case that the telephone had been constantly ringing and causing a disturbance, and the query was asked by Judge Blisworth whether or not Mrs. Horton had a right to tolerate a nuisance. De Golia claims not upon the ground that the wires were there upon a license and that in taking hold of them Horton committed a trespass.

Facing up his argument, De Golia produced numerous authorities to bolster up his side of the argument, the burden of which is that his client, the telephone company, is not to blame for such an accident; that it put its wires as is ordinarily done and that if its wires became crossed or charged in any way it was accidental and that if Horton had exercised proper precaution he would have been alive today.

The answer of Mrs. Horton's attorneys, to this is that the wires were strung so that they came down from the house without insulation to within a short distance of the ground, where they could be easily taken hold of by anyone.

MRS. KOEHN'S TRIAL SET FOR APRIL 27

The trial of Mrs. Lena Koehn for the murder of her husband was set this morning by Judge Greene for April 27. It was stated by Attorney A. L. Frick that Attorney J. J. McElroy would be associated with him in the defense, and his name was placed as attorney of record.

THIRTY CARS OF PEANUTS.

From the Boston Training, Richmond, Va.—A solid trainload of thirty cars of peanuts, the largest single shipment ever made by one firm, has left this city over the Chesapeake & Ohio for about four million pounds, and far Northwest. The shipment was made by the Columbia Peanut Company of Norfolk, the nuts coming from its three plants at Sudgik, Smithfield and Petersburg, and all of them grown in this State, or in North Carolina just across the line. For months this peanut train goes through to Chicago, where the nuts are distributed to their destinations. Deirdre, Milwaukee, Buffalo and various other points.

The weight of the entire shipment was about three fourths million pounds, and the quantity in bushels about 60,000. The value of the shipment at the original price is about $50,000 or $60,000, but it will realize more than twice that sum before the nuts reach the consumers.

Little Boy Blue

His Mother Blows His Horn.

A lady living in Illinois writes about food to a friend whose little girl has a delicate stomach and we are privileged to quote from her letter: "The best way to advise you in Little Bessie's case is, I feel, to tell you what I did for my little Boy Blue. He was like your daughter. Very fond of white bread, potatoes and the usual food of the everyday table. His appetite seemed good and he ate freely, but like Little Bessie, he didn't seem to get the proper amount of nourishment out of his food, was puny in body and, lacking strength, was peevish and half sick most of the time. "I was very much worried about him, because I couldn't find the right sort of food for him—the ordinary breakfast foods didn't seem to answer. At last, a few months ago, I determined to try Grape-Nuts. I confess I was almost in despair, and had but little hope that it would prove any better than the other prepared foods. "The result was most surprising. Boy Blue took to the Grape-Nuts food and it did him good from the very beginning. He has gained steadily in weight, strength and good spirits, and has taken on a complexion like a wild rose. His eyes fairly dance with health and happiness—his peevishness is all gone. "Then Husband and I both began to eat Grape-Nuts food, and with the best of results. He finds it especially beneficial as a brain food. You know that one who has sedentary habits needs something specially adapted to such conditions—much nourishment in small bulk. He finds it in Grape-Nuts food and he says he does better work since he began to eat it than ever before. "Give your baby Grape-Nuts and I'll guarantee the results." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in each pkg.

DR. HANISH

NEW YORK, April 3.—Disciples of Dr. Otoman Zar-Adusht Hanish, leader of the "Sun Worshipers," thronged to Carnegie Hall yesterday to hear his final Sunday lecture in New York on the hidden mysteries of Mazdaznanism.

There were bald-headed men who expected to learn how to grow hair in a night, women who wanted to drink of the fountain of perpetual youth.

They were thrown back on themselves in the most tantalizing fashion. In the same breath the audience was told that it must look out for itself and take everything that was coming to it, but that it must not want the things that are hurtful, or the individual would suffer in the next incarnation. Everybody was assured that sickness and death are entirely unnecessary.

"What are we here for? Where did we come from? Where are we going? What are we going for?" asked the master dramatically.

"We are here so that we may be happy and have just what we want in this world and the next. And it is our own fault if we don't have things just our way."

It was a nice comfortable sort of doctrine. Everybody liked it. The only trouble was the adept was not specific enough.

The guests began coming early so that they might have the supreme pleasure of seeing the Inspired One pass into the hall. They were first faced by the "bouncers" who guarded the threshold. They are the adopted sons of Hanish, two long-haired, fresh-faced lads of eighteen or twenty. It is their pleasant task to keep reporters out of the hall.

Once the faithful were passed, they came under the eyes of Mrs. Brownie Rathbone Weaverson, the Hanish high priestess, now under $500 bond for trial in the Supreme Court for using Mazdaznanian politics on Mrs. Fannie Rahill, of No. 1453 Amsterdam avenue, whose leg may have to be amputated.

All the women that recognized his divinity took off their hats. He makes it emphatic that it shows great disrespect to him to remain in his presence with covered head.

"I believe him absolutely," said one little person pulling out her hat pins nervously, and then anxiously asked her neighbor to arrange her pompadour.

"He is coming," somebody whispered. Swiftly a small blonde smoothly shaven long-haired man of thirty-five orthorezabout passed down the aisle.

He is sixty years old," said another, "and see how young he looks. He lived thirty years under ground in Persia."

One of his instructors was four hundred years old," said a well-known civil engineer. "Dr. Hanish intends to live forever. So do I. It is easy when you know how. I have begun the treatment. Am dieting. Will fast next. Have been on a bean diet for eight days. Only got the benefit of four days, however, because my beans were not properly prepared. I was given bean soup the first four days when I should have had mush. That is one of the evils of living in a boarding-house. One cannot get things properly prepared."

"My husband and myself have just finished a three days' fast," remarked a pale-faced young woman. "No, I am not weak. I am a little tired. That is nothing, however, when one is gaining in spirituality."

A lovely sight Dr. Hanish was. Usually he wears a glorified bathrobe a long gray cloth garment that envelopes his figure closely, and is tied around the waist with a cord. But he had a new suit yesterday. It was cream colored and consisted of a loose coat with wide lapels and full skirt that reached to his ankles.

He sank into his chair after reading an invocation, and the "bouncers" proceeded to put the master and his audience en rapport before he began the lecture.

"You must live for health and peace and comfort," declared Dr. Hanish from his arm-chair on the platform, "and according to the laws of nature. Remember that breathing is life. If you know how to breathe you can do anything and live forever. Never get excited. Look out for yourself first. You will get it in the neck if you don't. Take everything that is coming to you."

"Bathing is the curse of the earth. Cleanse the body by rubbing. You wash away all the oils and secretions of the body when you bathe."

Among foods the Inspired One recommends violets.

To the cheerful, inspiring music of Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" two gayly gowned women, one wearing ropes of pearls the other turquoises, took up the collection. The plates were filled with greenbacks and silver.

"Notice Mrs. Weaverson's gown," whispered one woman. "She wears no stockings just wraps strips of silk around her feet and limbs."

They go to pieces. There are but a few things to know in order to keep ferns in good condition and have them increase in beauty from year to year, says an authority. They must be grown in a moist atmosphere. If kept in a hot, dry room they will do no good. For this reason they do poorly in rooms heated by steam or hot water unless provision is made for adding moisture to the air. A room heated by a hot-air heater which has an evaporating pan is the best for ferns. Also the soil must be kept moist at all times, yet be well drained. The soil should be made up of peaty loam, one part, and leaf mold one part, and a handful of bone-meal to a pot.

Stuffed dates are quite the rage as an after-dinner sweet. These are stuffed with pecans, walnuts or almonds and are easily fixed at home.

The linen etamines, though open of weave, have considerable body and lend themselves most attractively to the new modes. A cream shade is here developed in the new-old bell skirt held in with tucks about the hips. Embroidery on the goods in an exceedingly open pattern form a front panel and heads the flounce effect, the skirt widening abruptly at the knee. The charming little bolero has a wide collar of the embroidery with tab ends falling below the waist line, the edges of the coat finished with fine double plaitings of lace-edge, muslin. The sleeves are the new half length that mark all the summer coats save those for utility wear.

Woman Nearly Drowns in Her Kitchen

SAN JACINTO, April 3.—Escape from drowning in one's own house is an experience seldom recorded, but Mrs. Harry van Dusen of this place has just passed through such an experience.

Mrs. van Dusen was working in her kitchen when she heard a crash. The next moment there was a sea of water rushing in through the kitchen door. Before she had time to jump on the table, the room was filled with water. The table floated about like a boat in the storm and Mrs. van Dusen had all she could do to retain her hold.

The water was four or five feet deep in the kitchen at one time. It finally subsided and Mrs. van Dusen managed to get out of the room and into the door yard. Until she saw the tank-house a mass of twisted iron and timber on the ground, she had no idea what had caused the flood. Heavy rains had filled the tank and overcrowded its capacity.

Mrs. Otto Filtz—Now, professor, I want you to be perfectly frank with me and tell me exactly what you think of my voice.

Professor Shopang—Ah! madam, how can you ask that of a member of a race that has been renowned for its politeness?—Cleveland Leader.

NASHUA, N. H., April 3.—"A man who is downright ugly to his wife ought to be taken out into the public square and shot," said the Rev. Lewis E. Pease, pastor of the First Universalist Church, to a fashionable congregation which filled the church edifice to the doors this morning.

"I have not the slightest sympathy for such a brute," he went on. "I do not believe in capital punishment, but even if I did and I was on a jury in a case where a woman was being tried for her life for using a rolling-pin—well, not for its usual purpose—I would never agree to the woman's conviction if I was convinced that her husband had been one of the nagging kind, one who is ever demanding more than his wife can do, ill-tempered, a masculine scold. Such a man has crushed out a heart purer than gold."

"Nothing that God ever created is so faithful as a woman. Every woman is a hero-worshiper. Naturally the man she chooses for a husband she regards in that light in a measure. Too often her disillusion is terrible. Then she carefully hides her hurt. Give her a chance and she will enthrone again the one she loved. She will work her fingers off for him if he will only show that he wants to please her."

"It is the little things, most often, which are the beginning of partings between husband and wife. Husbands, let us not demand more of the one we have promised to protect and cherish than that one is able to do. Let us remember that the pies don't taste like mother's because our own tastes are dulled. Let us send her away on a pleasant little trip and attempt to manage the children ourselves rather than scold her because they do not always act like angels; and, above all, let us show that we appreciate her efforts to please us."

"At the bedside of his dying wife recently a husband said: 'You've always been a good wife, Mary!'"

"You've never said that before, Henry," replied the dying woman. And as she passed away a smile lighted her face such as I have rarely seen."

on Orange street. The affair is planned in compliment to Miss Georgie Strong and her two guests, Mrs. William O'Brien and Miss O'Brien of South Bend, Ind.

Five hundred is the game announced for the afternoon, and about seventy guests have been bidden to the affair.

The play was interpreted by Miss Maude Wellendorf and Miss Bertha Brehm, who have recently returned from a two years' stay in Bayreuth, where they were fortunate enough to hear Wagner's masterpiece given in his own theater, built especially for this one play. Miss Brehm told the story of the composition and explained the motifs and themes of the music. The affair was patronized by the following society women: Mrs. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Mrs. Charles T. Blake, Mrs. J. L. Calkins, Mrs. William Carey Jones, Miss Heald, Mrs. William E. Ritter, Mrs. Warren Cheney, Mrs. Charles Rieber, Mrs. George C. Edwards, Mrs. Edward Peixotto, Mrs. F. B. HOUSEHOLD HINTS

All the saucy new hats are for the pliant type of woman.

Veil smart is the peacock feather made to simulate an ostrich plume.

All-gilt feathers are novel and pretty, but too artificial to attract many women.

It looks as if the short sack coat is to have a good deal of vogue for run-about wear.

A good choice for the separate run-about skirt is one of those irregular checks in lightweight cloth.

The most modish greens are the soft willow and almond shades and the silvery gray green of olive leaves.

This flaunted broderie Anglaise is just the old-fashioned embroidery of which petticoats were made years ago.

A new salad of cream cheese and Barleduc jelly mixed together and frozen in a mold, then cut into squares and served with mayonnaise lettuce leaves, is delicious for a luncheon.

Camellias and gardenias in colors nature never saw, are printed on organdies against a background of lattice work.

Sicilienne is made up into nobby coats, short or long needing no lining, and is excellent for general hard service.

Red and green peppers, persimmons tomatoes figs and long wreaths of moss are among the novel hat trimmings.

Mohair in black and white checks is popular for spring gowns and is displayed in the shops in all sizes of checks.

Hazelnuts in maraschino are a valuable adjunct to the pantry of the up-to-date hostess.

A new dessert is to serve ice cream in glasses and place a spoonful of preserved ginger pears on the top of each glass.

Many persons have given up growing ferns in pots on account of poor success with them. They get fine plants from the florist and in a few months

JUST A MUSICAL BOX

I knew her, a thing of lace and silk,
And ribbons, and gauzes and crinolines,
With her neck and shoulders as white as milk,
And her doll-like face and conscious mien
A lay-figure fashioned to fit a dress,
All stuffed within with straw and bran,
Is that a woman to love to caress?
Is that a creature to charm a man?

Only listen! how charmingly she talks
Of your dress and hers—of the Paris mode—
Of the coming ball—of the opera box—
Of jupons, and flounces, and fashions abroad.
Not a bonnet in church but she knows it well,
And Fashion she worships with downcast eyes,
A marchande de modes in her oracle,
And Paris her earthly paradise.

She's perfect to whirl in a waltz;
And her shoulders show well on a soft divan,
As she lounges at night and spreads her silks,
And plays with her bracelets and furls her fan,
With a little laugh at whatever you say,
And rounding her "No" with a look of surprise
And slipping her "Yes" with an air distrair,
And a pair of aimless, wandering eyes.

Her duty this Christian never omits!
She makes her calls, and she leaves her cards,
And enchants a circle of half-fledged wits,
And slim attaches and six-foot Guards.
Her talk is of people who're nasty or nice,
And she likes little bon-bons of compliments,
While she seasons their sweetness by way of spice,
By some witless scandal she often invents.

Is this the thing for a mother or wife?
Could love ever grow on such barren rocks?
Is this a companion to take for a wife?
One might as well marry a musical box.
You exhaust in a day her full extent,
'Tis the same little tinkle of tunes always;
You must wind her up with a compliment
To be bored with the only airs she plays.

INTER-COLLEGIATE GAME WON BY CALIFORNIA

Berkeley College Men Defeat Visiting Stanford Nine Saturday by a Score of 3 to 2.

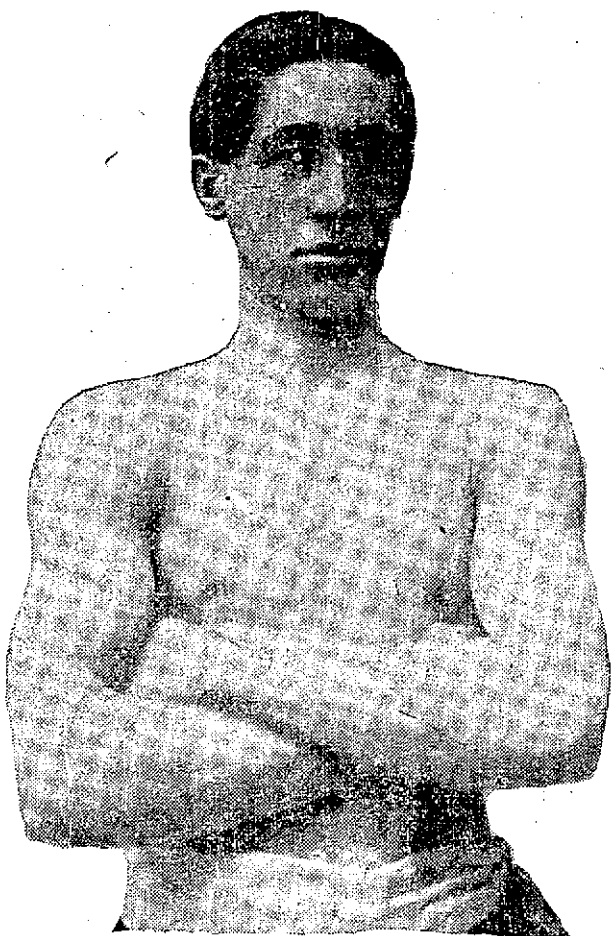

By a timely home run in the very last inning of the first intercollegiate baseball game Saturday afternoon, played on the Berkeley diamond, the Stanford third baseman, saved his nine from a whitewash and gave his disheartened comrades two runs to match the three which had been already secured by the jubilant California team.

It did not bring a victory, but, coming at the last ditch, it cleared the Stanford contingent and was regarded by the men as an achievement second only to the remarkable work done by the same little athlete when he captained the victorious freshman football team for the Cardinal and, largely by his own individual prowess, won a victory over the Blue and Gold.

Although the match was quite a simple affair for the most part, there were several plays that brought the rosters to their feet and aroused them from their sluggishness. This was particularly so when the spectacular home run was made by Penton at the end of the game, when the spectators had already commenced to go home under the impression that Stanford would be unable to score. It must be said to the credit, or discredit, of both sides, that none of the runs were made save through errors on the part of the Stanford fielders, who showed that they were novices under fire for the first time by the sad way Lewis, if not Dudley, in judgment and unmistakable cases of "rattles" were responsible for the gains of the Blue and Gold, and there were no openings that were overlooked by his own individual prowess.

The match, although a defeat for Stanford, by no means showed the Cardinal very much weaker than California's boasted team of veterans. If there was one particular surprise it was in the re-

FOR LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP

YOUNG CHOYINSKI

Good Amateur Fights Are on This Card.

The lightweight championship title of the Pacific Coast in amateur ranks, will be decided next Thursday evening at Woodward's Pavilion, San Francisco, when Tom Sullivan and Young Choyinski meet under the auspices of the Bay City Athletic Club.

By beating Lew Powell, Young Choyinski is the present holder of the title, and has proven himself a high class fighter, ready and willing to mix at all times. Sullivan, the challenger, is reckoned the cleverest lightweight in the business, and looks to be a fitting for the hard hitting Choyinski. He has fought and won from the best boys of his weight and his record shows that in the past, he has a decision over the present champion, Choyinski.

As Sullivan is confident of repeating that victory, and as the sting of that defeat still rankles in the mind of Choyinski, these two sterling lightweight will put up a contest full of the kind of going the public like best, and a mill worth going miles to see.

On the same evening, Harry Tenny and Barney Driscoll will struggle for the bantam championship. These two need no introduction to the local fight fans, and their names are synonymous with fast fighting. To make the bout exceptionally interesting, they have tried conclusions in the ring on four previous occasions, each having two decisions to his credit. Tenny and Driscoll are to fight at 115 pounds.

Five other equally interesting bouts have been arranged to precede the main events and a good evening's sport is assured the fight fans. The following is the remainder of the card: Gus Koster vs. Bill Johnston, 170 pounds; Jack Conroy, Hawthorne Club, vs. John Garrigan, S. F. A. C., 115 pounds; Jim E. S., S. F. A. C., vs. Jack Brown, Southside, 125 pounds; Danny Murphy, P. Club, vs. Al. Burns, Star Club, 105 pounds; Jack Rodney, Ocean View Cy-clone, vs. Young Otis, Jim Anthony's School, 125 pounds.

ALBION ROVERS BEATEN.

Independents Win Association Game.

Score: 7 Goals to 3

In the semi-final round for the California Association football cup, played yesterday at Freeman's Park, Golden Gate, the Independents defeated the Albion Rovers by a score of 7 goals to 3. Arthur Robinson was the referee.

Early in the first period Shand, who was playing in the Rover back line, handled the ball within the penalty area and the referee awarded a penalty kick, which resulted in a goal for the Independents. The Rover quickly obtained an equalizing goal and before the end of the first period added two more, so the score read: Albion Rover, 3 goals; Independents 1 goal. When the second period opened the Independents made a goal less than twenty seconds from the kick-off, making the score: Albion Rovers, 3; Independents 2.

The Rovers seemed to lose confidence and scored nothing during the rest of the game, while the Independents kept on until the record stood: Independents, 7 goals; Rovers, 3 goals. The Rover team included three new arrivals from Great Britain, who rendered excellent service—Hill, Petrie and Michie. The Independents played one new man, J. Dwyer, who also proved an acquisition on the right wing. The teams lined up as follows:

LOCAL RIDERS FINISH SECOND

The finish was a terrific one and Eush barely beat A. Vallen of the Oakland Wheelmen under the wire. The other riders were strung out in the rear, the nearest a poor third to Vallen.

According to the figures compiled immediately after the race, E. McWhirter, who rode the third relay for the Oakland Wheelmen, made the fastest lap, but when the officials met at the Oakland Wheelmen's clubhouse, the figures were in confusion and nobody seemed to know just what had been done and what had not been done. There is no question, however, as to the order in which the first two clubs finished.

The various teams were made up, and the following-named representatives of the competitors of the competing clubs.

ST. JOSEPH'S WIN GAME

In a practice baseball game played yesterday on the Peralta Park grounds in Berkeley, the second team of St. Joseph's Academy defeated the first team of St. Francis de Sales School with a score of 12 to 9. Although the visitors were much larger than the St. Joseph's boys who compose the second team of the Academy, St. Francis de Sales' team was unable to defeat their smaller opponents.

Dying of Famine
Is, in its torments, like dying of consumption. The progress of consumption, from the beginning to the very end, is a long torture, both to victim and friends.

BERKELEY, April 7.—Assistant Entomologist Quayle of the University has been employed to carry on scientific experiments in the vicinity of San Mateo for the purpose of exterminating the mosquito of that district.

The Burlington Improvement Association has voted $1500 to the cause and, together with other appropriations, the total amount will reach about $2000. The experiments have been carried on for about a month and so far have met with great success, as no more mosquitoes have appeared.

One of the chief methods used by Quayle to exterminate the mosquitoes was to cover the surfaces of ponds containing mosquito larvae with oil.

It was found by the University scientists that a number of the mosquitoes that were infesting San Mateo came from districts at a considerable distance away. The ponds in these places were similarly treated, making the town mosquito-proof for miles around.

The village is in the work of exterminating the pests. Entomologist Quayle recommended that several bodies of water be drained to prevent a recurrence of the mosquito evil next year.

Congregational Edifice to be Opened With Great Ceremony— Personal Notes.

ALAMEDA, April 3.—Plans are practically complete for the elaborate ceremonies connected with the dedication of the ornate house of worship built for the congregation of the First Congregational Church at the corner of Central avenue and Chestnut street. The services are to cover a period of two weeks. Rev. W. W. Scudder Jr., who was a pioneer pastor of the church, with Mrs. Scudder, will be here from Tacoma, Wash., to participate in the dedication.

On the 13th inst. a reception is to be tendered to Rev. Mr. Scudder, the affair to conclude with a banquet. On Sunday social affair was the meeting of the Five Hundred Club at the residence of Mrs. and Mrs. C. E. Margrave, 2620 Santitas Clara avenue, on Thursday evening. The first prize for gentlemen was awarded to Mr. J. H. Peterson, while the ladies' trophy went to Mrs. B. B. Busse. The club meets every Thursday evening at the home of one of the members. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Pettes, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Busse, Judge and Mrs. Fred S. Cone, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Higgins, Mrs. A. F. AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH.
ALAMEDA, April 3.—At the First Christian Church last night Rev. F. C. Macfarlane chose for his discourse the live topic, "Why Do Men Have Trouble With Their Wives?" The card announcing the sermon, which was full of good points, was as pertinent as well as to the better halves, and was a most interesting thing being from "The Taming of the Shrew": "She is my goods, my chattels, she is my house, my household stuff, my field, my barn, my horse, my ox, my anything."

TO BUILD HALL
A new hall will soon be built by the Fruitvale Masons as their old building is far too small for convenience. An association has been formed to take care of the matter. The capital stock is $25,000 and the directors are J. C. Hammel, V. H. Greenman, Andrew N. Frost, W. H. Fraser, Cornelius W. Carew, George E. Lund and C. Lerori.

For several months the Masons have been considering the question but have tried to keep it quiet, fearing the property owners would put a fancy price on their land if they found it out. The old hall is located on East Fourteenth street and is inadequate even for the needs of the regular meetings of the lodge, and for entertainments is positively cramped.

The location of the new temple has not yet been determined.

LOCAL NOTES.

Notice of an election of trustees for the new High School for Elmhurst, Bray, Melrose, Lockwood and Fruitvale has been received by the trustees of the grammar schools of those districts. There will be one trustee from each district and these, with Superintendent of Schools Crawford, will choose the location of the new building and act as the school board until their successors are elected next year. The election will take place within the next two weeks at a date to be arranged.

Rev. E. E. Palmer, pastor of the Congregational Church, spoke yesterday morning on the topic, "How Our English Ancestors began to read the Bible." His subject in the evening was "Nehemiah and His King."

PLAN WOLF DRIVE FOR PRESIDENT

LAWTON, O. T., April 3.—Although the President seeks isolation from the world in planning to hunt wolves for a week in the 480,000-acre pasture reserve in Southern Oklahoma, the citizens of that section of the Territory have demanded that he shall view and participate in one of those rousing, stupendous wolf drives for which the southwest country is noted.

To this end arrangements are now being perfected for the biggest drive since the history of the West.

The President will be given a horse and will take part in the final rush after the wolves have been corraled. In order that the plans may be carried out it will be necessary to get the consent of the President's manager, who has decreed that during the President's seclusion amid the fastnesses of the Indian reserve troops of cavalry from Fort Snell will patrol the fences and permit no one to approach.

DOES YOUR SCALP ITCH?

Are Your Hairs Drooping One by One?

If your scalp itches you are doubtless suffering from dandruff. The dandruff germ is digging up your scalp in little flakes, called dandruff, and sapping the life of the hair bulb. No hair preparation that is a mere hair stimulant and tonic will cure dandruff, because it won't kill the germ that causes the trouble. Newberp Herpicide is the only scientific discovery and it will kill the dandruff germ. Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect; kill the germ and you will have no more dandruff, falling hair or baldness. Sold by leading druggists. FORMER AMBASSADOR

SAVED FROM DEATH

BY HIS PLUG HAT.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Andrew D. White, former President of Cornell University and ex-Ambassador to Germany, has had a narrow escape from death while returning to this city from New Haven. He was severely cut by glass from a broken window and only escaped by the narrow margin from losing the top of his head. The silk hat which he wore was cut across as if by a knife scarcely more than one-eighth of an inch from the top of his head.

Mr. White had a seat in a Pullman, two cars back from the engine. Near him sat a woman and a child. The train was running at a high rate of speed near New Haven when it passed a freight train going in the opposite direction. Suddenly there was a crash and a shower of glass and bits of wood fell on Mr. White who had been reading. His hands and arms were severely cut while a piece of plate glass had cut his left arm almost in two. The former diplomat was dazed by the suddenness of the accident and still suffering from the shock. The woman passenger sitting near by was slightly hurt and when the train reached New York she was sent home in a cab.

Examination of the car showed that something had hit the double window opposite where Mr. White was seated. Glass from that side apparently had been hurled across the car with such force that the window beside the former diplomat was demolished. The train was stopped but no cause for the accident could be found, nor was there evidence that anything had been thrown at the train. Trainsmen reached the conclusion that a crash and a shower of glass and bits of wood fell on Mr. White who had

THE SCARLET LETTER OF TROUBLES END IN MOTHERHOOD

MARRIAGE

Actual Sterility in Women Is Very Rare—Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes.

MRS. ANNIE SPIARS BECOMES THE BRIDE OF EDWARD LANE.

A matter, which has been one of the stable topics of gossip for many years, terminated Saturday in the marriage of the two principals, Edward Lane and Mrs. Annie Spiars.

Lane secured a license on Saturday afternoon, giving his age as fifty-six and that of his bride as fifty-eight, and the wedding was celebrated in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. Burton M. Palmer officiating. Those who witnessed the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Spiars, Mr. and Mrs. Hardwick, Miss Hardwick and Charles Harrison.

Thus quietly ended the events which have kept the newly made husband and wife in the limelight of public gossip for so many years.

The first husband of Mrs. Lane was F. W. Spiars, who was for many years one of the owners of the old Philadelphia Restaurant, located on Broadway near Eleventh street. He lived in Fruitvale, and when he died he left her an estate which was sufficient to keep her in comfort for the rest of her life.

Across from the cottage of the Spiars lived one Edward Lane, his wife and a goodly family of children. The two families were friends, and visited back and forth, without a thought of the aftermath.

After Spiars' death Mrs. Lane No. 1, thought that Lane was visiting the widow Spiars too frequently, and getting no satisfactory explanations from Lane, she sued for a divorce from him.

Lane sued Mrs. Spiars for damages, alleging that she had alienated the affection of her husband, and broken up a happy family.

The suits were long drawn out, and the rumor was that the matters had been compromised by Lane agreeing to pay Mrs. Lane a stipulated sum monthly for the support of herself and children.

Mrs. Lane had for a backer William Lane, the brother of Edward Lane. Edward insisted that William was unduly interested in the widow and that he had an eye to the gain he would make by annexing her hand her compensation. The money in question was the only attraction the widow possessed for Edward. And so the charges and counter charges were sent forth. The brothers became enemies, and the family was in a perpetual state of war.

Lane next appeared before the public in a fight with one Blackman, who also resides in Fruitvale. Blackman had been a place of property from Lane or Mrs. Spiars, and was notified that his tenancy was no longer desired. He moved, but neglected to return the keys of the building to William Lane, and when he was promptly laid out by a blow from Blackman, who was arrested for presuming to knock Lane down.

From that time to this Lane has been quiet, and the matter before the public gave when his wife died about a year ago. His life up to that time had been made very unpleasant by the quarrels with his wife concerning his relations with Mrs. Spiars, his tendency that he was only a good friend of the charming widow.

His marriage yesterday brings all the scandal to the fore once more, but it is presumed that the Lane-Spiars feud will lay the matter to rest, and heretofore been haunting their lives.

RAILROADS PLAN FOR PURE MILK

NEW YORK, April 3.—Three trunk lines are reported by the Commissioner of Health to have agreed that they will bring all their milk to New York this summer in refrigerated cars, with every can and case packed in ice. The smaller railroad lines are expected to follow the same plan. An inevitable result, the health officers say, will be a material reduction in sickness among infants and consequently a lower death rate.

There will be no more price of milk in consequence of the purer supply. The expense incident to cooling the milk enroute to the city is small, no more than one or two cents for each quart can. Elaborate plans are also being laid by the department to protect consumers during the coming warm season against impure or drugged product. Milk found to have been embalmed with formaldehyde is to be seized and destroyed. Even three drops of formaldehyde in a forty-quart can of milk will be sufficient to cause condemnation.

WILL CONFER WITH PRESIDENT

NEW YORK, April 3.—Vice-President Caceres has arrived with his staff, riding from Santiago to confer with President Morales, cables the Herald's correspondent at Santo Domingo. He reports the interior quiet. General Miguelito, a minor leader, with fifteen men, revolted in the forest near Sanchez and hopes to cooperate in an attempt at landing on Barba and the insurgent band on Turks Island. The gunboat President is missing. It is reported to be cruising to prevent the landing of arms and ammunition at Mayaguez and on Turks Island. The gunboat Independencia, with eighty soldiers on board, sailed Saturday for Sanchez to intercept Miguelito and his possible recruits for a revolt at Monte Christi.

NEW YORK, April 3.—Nordenskjold, a son of the famous Arctic explorer, has returned, cables the Herald's Monte Video, Uruguay, correspondent from an expedition into the interior of South America to the borders of Brazil, Bolivia and Peru, where he found Indians who had never seen white men. They are among the most primitive people in the world. They believed the explorer to be some god and begged him to accept their chief. GIRL'S NARROW ESCAPE

Two killed in train wreck

ATTORNEY GEO. REED'S DAUGHTER, MISS ELVA, THROWN FROM HORSE.

A steam rock crusher, a spirited saddle horse, and a beautiful girl were the dramatic persons in a short scene enacted before the residence of Attorney George Reed at 1388 Telegraph avenue yesterday. The young lady was Miss Elva Reed, a daughter of the household, who had just mounted her horse preparatory to a morning canter, when the animal reared, falling backwards with the young lady underneath. The accident was quickly over, and Miss Reed escaped with nothing worse than a sprained wrist and a few bruises, but it is almost miraculous that she was not seriously and perhaps fatally injured.

The accident was witnessed by her sister, Miss Mabel Reed, who says that the time between the first of her sister falling backward and the time when she disentangled herself from the reins seemed like hours.

Miss Elva Reed is inclined to make light of the whole affair, and her story of the affair is that the steam rock crusher passing down the avenue made the horse restless. She pulled the horse up to keep him from prancing, but was unaccustomed to the Spanish bit which had been substituted for the snaffle bit which she generally used. She pulled a bit too hard, and the horse reared and fell backwards. She had hung herself slightly to one side in trying to rein him up, and this fact, together with the fact that the saddle used had a high pommel, which prevented her being crushed, probably saved her life.

He refused to accept their offer, knowing his prestige would not outlive his ammunition.
